> WELCOME TO THE SOLDIERS.—Having previously arranged to give a welcome to the volunteer soldiers from Glencarlyn, in the county, and its vicinity, on their return, Curtis Hall pre sented a beautiful scene last night. The hall was filled to its fullest capacity. Col. W.C. Penneywell, as president, delivered the welcoming speech in a creditable manner. After a masterly address by Gen. S. S. Burdett the returned soldiers, with their ladies on their arms, took position and the soldiers were welcomed by a hearty old Virginia handsbake. A number of ladies wear ing caps emblematic of the natior al colors acted as waiters and served the refreshments to all after the enjoyment afforded by the musical and literary treat given by volunteers. A dance fol-lowed, which was prolonged until the wee sma' bours. The entire affair was one of the most interesting witnessed in the county for a long time, and all preseat enjoyed themselves greatly.

RUNAWAY BOY .- Charles Wood, a twelve-year-old boy, is held at the police station on a charge of being a run- 1 away from his home in Baltimore. The boy went to the station house to apply for lodging and the officer in charge suspecting he had run away questioned him. He acknowledged that he had left his home, 1044 Clinton Place, Baltimore, on Saturday night last and that his father's name was Frank Wood. He said he went away with a white man, whose name he did not know, but who told him he would take him to see the world. The man took him as far as Quantico and there left him. The boy made his way back to this city and is anxious to return home.

THE WEST END MAIL DELIVERY .-In reference to the statement made in the Gazette on Thursday that notwith-standing the houses in West End had been numbered and the sidewalks repaired the free mail delivery had not been extended to that village, Postmaster Crupper, of this city, says that he is willing and anxious to extend that service, but he cannot do so until the people of West End comply with the requirements of the Postoffice Department, one of which is that the street running through that village must be properly lighted. Just as soon as this is done the residents of West End will have their mail delivered free of charge.

Cameron, for $3,000. Messrs. O'Neal & Lunt sold at auc 508 Prince street, the residence of the late Wm. N. Berkley, for $1,450, Rev. Frank P. Berkley being the purchaser.

NO WARRANT ISSUED.-A bicycle dealer applied to the Mayor this morning for a warrant for the arrest of a man for obtaining repairs on a wneel through a representation that his mother would pay. The bicycle dealer looked upon the affair as one of false pretences, inasmuch as the mother refused to pay, but the Mayor declined to issue a warrant, taking the position that a larceny could not be established where the act complained of was only a matter of civil
